

AGENDA

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 2007

Time	Event		Room
8:30-8:45	Welcome: Glenda Lappan, Center for the Study of Mathematics Curriculum (CSMC) Cora Marrett, Assistant Director of Education and Human Resources, National Science Foundation		CCI
8:45-9:45	Plenary Session: Mathematics Curriculum Standards: A Path Toward Coherence Jere Confrey, Washington University - St. Louis		CCI
9:45-10:15	Break
10:15-11:45	Concurrent Breakout Sessions	Secondary Mathematics Expectations (Achieve), Laura Slover and Kaye Forgione  College Board Standards for College Success: Mathematics and Statistics (College Board), John Dossey and Katherine Halvorsen  Session Presider : Ira Papick, University of Missouri and CSMC	CC1 (red group)
		Curriculum Focal Points: A Quest for Coherence (NCTM), Francis (Skip) Fennell and Janie Schielack  Guidelines for Assessment and Instruction in Statistics Education (GAISE) Report (American Statistical Association), Christine Franklin and Gary Kader  Session Presider : Kathryn Chval, University of Missouri and CSMC	CC3 (green group)
12:00-12:45	Lunch		CC1
1:00-2:30	Repeat of Concurrent Breakout Sessions	Secondary Mathematics Expectations (Achieve), Laura Slover and Kaye Forgione  College Board Standards for College Success: Mathematics and Statistics (College Board), John Dossey and Katherine Halvorsen  Session Presider : Ira Papick, University of Missouri and CSMC	CC3 (green group)
		Curriculum Focal Points: A Quest for Coherence (NCTM), Francis (Skip) Fennell and Janie Schielack  Guidelines for Assessment and Instruction in Statistics Education (GAISE) Report (American Statistical Association), Christine Franklin and Gary Kader  Session Presider : Kathryn Chval, University of Missouri and CSMC	CC1 (red group)
2:30-3:00	Break
3:00-4:00	Plenary Session: Common Themes and Notable Differences across Mathematics Curriculum Documents Chris Hirsch, Western Michigan University and CSMC		CC1
4:15-5:15	Panel: Discussion of Curriculum Recommendations by Achieve, ASA, the College Board, and NCTM Panelists: Roxy Peck (ASA), Skip Fennell (NCTM), John Dossey (College Board), Laura Slover (Achieve) Moderator: Iris Weiss, Horizon Research, Inc. and CSMC		CC1
5:15-6:30	Reception Welcome by Co-sponsors		CC1

TUESDAY FEBRUARY 6, 2007

Time	Event	Room
7:30-8:15	Continental Breakfast	CCI
8:30-9:45	Panel: How can/should/will the new curriculum recommendations be used? Panelists: Everly Broadway (North Carolina Department of Public Instruction); Karen Usiskin (Pearson Scott Foresman Publishing Company); Alfinio Flores (Arizona State University); Sherri Miller (ACT) Moderator: Diane Briars (Pittsburgh, PA)	CCI
10:00-11:00	Panel: What are the implications of the new curriculum recommendations for post-secondary education and employment? Panelists: Bernard Madison (MAA); William Goldman (AMS); Susan Traiman (Business Roundtable) Moderator: Richard Scheaffer (Chair of CBMS, past-president of ASA)	CCI
11:00-11:30	Break with light snacks
11:30-12:45	Panel: Is consensus on national curriculum standards necessary for advancing student learning? Panelists: Diane Schaefer (Rhode Island Department of Education and President of ASSM); Susan Jo Russell (TERC); Bob Borst (Columbia MO Public Schools); Bill Schmidt (Michigan State University) Moderator: Randy Charles (San Jose, CA)	CCI
12:45-1:45	Comments: Joan Ferrini-Mundy, National Science Foundation Closing remarks: Michael Cohen (Achieve) and Glenda Lappan (Michigan State University and CSMC)	CCI